Is this program right for me?

Have you experienced homelessness due to a change of circumstances or conditions in your life, such as the loss of a job, family member, or changes in your health? Have you been evicted or at-risk of eviction due to lack of financial resources, leaving you unable to pay rent on time? Have you experienced frequent housing instability, leading to recurring episodes of homelessness on the streets or in a shelter?

If these are some of the challenges that you are facing today are you willing to make some changes and receive help?

Let the Stone Residence Program help you.

Stone Residence

A Permanent Supportive Housing Program

Serving Chronically Homeless Individuals with Co-Occurring Disorders in Fall River, Massachusetts

What can I expect if I participate in the program?

Stone Residence offers 22 single room occupancy units located in a three-story structure providing a comfortable home-like environment.

Men and women reside in Stone Residence permanently as they develop the necessary skills and support systems to be self-sufficient. Supportive services are available to residents. Services include assistance with connecting to behavioral health treatment and obtaining employment, entitlements, living and coping skills.

These skills, services, and supports empower residents so they experience housing stability and an improved quality of life.

I feel safe living at the Stone Residence. I have built amazing friendships with some of the other residents. My case manager is always available to help guide me when I need it.

~ Cassidy

Who is eligible?

Eligible participants must have a co-occurring disorder (mental health and substance abuse). Must be 18 years of age or older, chronically homeless in Fall River, and willing to authorize a CORI check.

How do I apply?

All referrals, including those from social service agencies, homeless service providers, addiction centers, and self-referrals, must go through Fall River's Coordinated Entry System, "The CALL", which can be reached by calling 1-800-HOMELESS.

If you meet the program criteria, an intake assessment will be conducted on site. Upon acceptance, the admission process begins.

Stone Residence is funded by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under the City of Fall River Continuum of Care and the Community Housing Resource Board.
