THE REASON WE WALK

Imagine a snowy winter day with no warm home
to go to but living on the street in the blustery cold with little or no food or money.

How would you stay warm?

How would you secure employment?

How would you obtain the services you need?

These are some of the challenges many individuals experiencing homelessness face in our community on a daily basis.

This is why we walk.

We walk to provide these individuals experiencing homelessness with not only food and shelter but an opportunity to turn their lives around and become self-sufficient.
